Shark by No Means Valuable.
From the hide of a 600-pound shark it is possible to obtain ten square feet of leather, and the stomach furnishes a raw material which can be made into leather with the appearance and texture of glazed kid, according to the New York Evening Post. The liver will yield anywhere from 10 to 15 gallons of oil and the dorsal fin, when dried, will bring about $2.50 among oriental epicures.

Just Like the Opera.
The band concerts are being attended by just about all the people in town who enjoy talking at the same time.—St. Joseph Gazette.

In America Women buy—
87 per cent of all raw and market foods
96 per cent of all dry goods
48 per cent of all drug supplies
48 per cent of all hardware and house furnishings.
And even 11 per cent of all men's clothing.
That's the reason advertisers prefer the newspapers as their medium through which to talk to the women folks. The newspaper goes into the home and is read at the fireside.

The Three Sweetest Words.
There are three words, the sweetest words in all of human speech—More sweet than any all songs of birds Or pages poets preach. This life may be a vale of tears, A sad and dreary thing—Three words, and trouble disappears And birds begin to sing. Three words, and all the roses bloom. The sun begins to shine. Three words will dissipate the gloom And water turn to wine. Three words will cheer the saddest days—
"I love you?" Wring, by heck! It is another, sweeter phrase, "Enclosed find check."
